County Club Bogey Tourney Next Sunday

Col. Bogey will probably be badly whopped at the Country Club links, on next Sunday, when the bogey competition of the Club is held. Two nice prizes are up, and everything that could make golfing enjoyable or interesting is to be furnished. For this reason, big entries are expected, including the best of the players in the island.

The Greens are lively, and in great form, promising that the men who play will be equal to the occasion.

It is a particularly fortunate circumstance that the links have been dry for a very long time, and were never in better condition than they are now. Good links are always an inducement to coax the golfer from the paths of ignominious ease. Added to this, the schedule of the Greens is attracting attention and interest as a whole, and the bogey is one of the most popular numbers on the whole program.

NO MORNING BASEBALL

At a meeting of the Press League yesterday afternoon on the roof garden of the Young Hotel it was decided to play the games of the league on Sunday afternoon instead of in the morning, as planned at the beginning of the season, the reason being that church people of the town have made an objection to the trustees, who have acceded, and have forbidden the use of the Baseball Park bath.

"Now the church people," it is remarked by a ball-tosser, "ought to be satisfied, as they will have a chance to see the games on Sunday afternoons."

Most of the players are not at all sad over the change, as it gives them an opportunity to get their usual nap in the morning.

JACKIES VS. QUARANTINES

The "jack tars from the Iroquois" have been industriously throwing the sphere around all week, in anticipation of a "good game" of baseball which they expect to play Sunday morning when they cross the willow with the men from the Quarantine Station. The game takes place at 9 o'clock. Captain G. C. Leach of the Quarantines says that his men will put up the game of their lives, from present indications, and thinks that some hot sport will be offered.

H. G. C. SHOOT TODAY

The regular weekly shoot of the Hawaiian Gun Club will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Kakaako traps. It is possible that the prize for the present series will be awarded after this shoot, as a few of the men in the competition have been heavy winners.

Interest in shooting is on the increase.

WARREN WINS CUP

W. L. Warren added another to his string of victories yesterday afternoon, when he defeated A. J. Lowrey 6-4, 8-6, 6-3 in the last round of the Beretania Tennis Club's Invitation Tourney.

Warren won the Wall Cup recently and is still in his winning streak.

The Kams and Puns will meet in another game next Monday at the latter's grounds to finish up the schedule.

Kapiolani Park Saturday

An innovation of peculiar interest to Honolulu will be introduced on Saturday next in the form of auto races at Kapiolani Park, to be held in connection with one or maybe two horse races. One auto race has been arranged for by E. H. Lewis and the Associated Garage, and it is expected that another will result as a consequence of the challenge of the Garage to any car of the Ford runabout class in town to race their 4-cylinder Cameron, which is in the same general class.

Auto races have been in a way taboo on the local track for the reason that the turns are not banked, and it is not feasible to take them at a high rate of speed, without great risk of accident. The plan which has been adopted for these races, however, obviates all of the difficulty, as the turns will be negotiated on the principle which has become familiar through its use for the chariot races in the circus ring, where similar difficulties have to be overcome. The car in the lead must take the outside of the track, and the car following gets the post, and then they alternate on the next turn. In this way it will be impossible to take the turns at high speed, and chances for broken necks and other unpleasant features which sometimes crop up are minimized to about the zero notch.

The cars which have been secured for the race which is now arranged are C. & H. Behn's Tourist 40, and E. H. Lewis' Franklin 25, both of which are of the touring-car type, and will carry a full load of passengers. The distance will be five miles.

Five miles is the distance which is tentatively spoken of for the other race as well, as it offers a better spectacle than a short sprint, and tests the powers of the car better than a shorter run, where a "lucky" turn might give one man all the advantage.

The horses which will be seen are E. H. Lewis' Shamrock, and Duke, a fast piece of horse-flesh, which has not so far been matched against the Hibernian.

The horse race or races will be held at 5 o'clock, and the autos will try conclusions immediately beforehand.

For the auto race, the Associated Garage offers a prize.

The third anniversary of the formation of the Diamond Head Athletic Club will be held next month, a big celebration being promised.

The Kapiolani Baseball League has a meeting tonight.

Featherweight Wants Match With Any Local Man

While fight promoters are doing things again in Honolulu, there is a notable overlooking of men who are anxious for a match, and bar none in their class, not the least among the men who may be spoken of in this bunch being Kid Heine, who fights at 12-123. He has none, and will give weights to some of the men in the local fight game. He is particularly anxious to hook up with Willis, and for that purpose can make his hand fly, it is said by his trainer, who is also his older brother, "Young" Heine.

The offer as made by Kid Heine is enough to tempt some boxer into the ring surely. He will fight Willis, or the heady Bird, in case a match could be made before Bird leaves this place for the Coast, with Richardson, or any others of the feather class. Richardson is a lightweight, but Heine is not adverse to giving him much the best of the weights.

The beauty of the thing so far as Heine is concerned is that he is nearer the height of the other little men about town than Ah Sam.

FROM THE PRESS BOX

The Jewels should have an easy thing of it with the Kams unless the latter make some interesting changes before their coming games. It is just possible that Reuter will gather his strongest men to make a last effort to save their interest in the first series.

A bunch of photographs of the Santa Clara College team, with the record of each player, has been received and will shortly appear in the daily papers. This will give the fans a chance to size up the newcomers.

Manager Steere of the Colts is putting his men through a series of stick-work that should make some improvement in their coming game.

Costello, of the Diamonds, is putting up a very neat game at second. A little more speed and he will rank with the best of 'em.

Bushnell will be in the box with Soares on the receiving end for the Saints in the first game on Saturday.

Col. Fisher was seen for the first time this season among the "old fans" on the Ewa bleachers.

Amoy may do the slab-work for the Jewels with perhaps a new man receiving.

MONEY AND MUSCLE

The appearance of A. L. Drexel-Biddle in a fistie bout with Jack O'Brien was one of the interesting events of the East some months ago. Biddle is connected with the famous Drexel family and, although wealthy, has aspirations as a boxer. He made quite a happy showing against the popular Philadelphia professional.
